PRINCIPAL’S CORNER

December, 2012

Dear Friends,

Katherine Lee is a former editor at Parenting and Working Mother magazines, and the mother of an 11-year-old son. She has written and edited numerous articles and essays on parenting and children's health and development for Parenting, Working Mother, Wondertime, Ladies' Home Journal, EverydayHealth.com, Sprig.com and About.com. She had the following to say about the holiday season and children:

“The holidays are a fun and joyous time, but also a very busy one, and holiday stress and anxiety in children is a common occurrence. During the holidays, there are lots of fun activities and events going on, both at home and at school. And while that can be a good thing, the reality is that all that hustle and bustle means schedules are often out of whack, bedtimes get pushed back, and routines are disrupted. As a result, it’s inevitable that kids may feel some degree of holiday stress.”

No matter if a family celebrates a specific holiday this time of year or not, the holiday season affects us all. The days are shorter. It is dark in the early morning and dark again early in the evening ~ and people are busy. Sickness swarms around us like smoke circling the chimney tops. And as Katherine Lee says, “schedules are often out of whack.” So how do we keep learning alive, focus on all that is positive and maintain family sanity?

I believe we have to look for the opportunity to turn the craziness into special learning times. Integrate and organize. There are multiple ways to do this that won’t add to your routines, but may simplify your process. The trick is to normalize the process and look for the learning that is involved. When craziness becomes learning, there is an inherent calm and that is the calm that can allow the joy of this time of year to be enjoyed. So here we go...

~ Many people find themselves cooking this time of year. Invite your child to be a part. This can offer fine motor practice, opportunities to integrate measurement, fractions and other related math. Make the tasks manageable so they don’t add work. If you choose to let them sift the flour don’t be stressed when the room is well floured... Involve learners in the planning that is so a part of every endeavor in December and well into January. ~Have the child create some of the “to do” lists. This helps to organize the family while teaching the child important executive functioning skills. How does one prioritize? What is a child’s responsibility during preparation times? ~ If everyone is involved, schedules are more likely to be honored and tasks completed in a less hectic way. ~ Share the load.

If there are things to be done for preparing for guests, involve the children. They can help clean, decorate and organize ~ all excellent learning opportunities. Have them design a floor plan using a ruler and scale. Have them prepare nameplates for settings ~ a great opportunity to practice the forgotten art of cursive writing!

If you don't celebrate at all, there will be a winter vacation for all children. Invite the child to create a schedule, negotiate how the time will be spent. ~ This time of year offers endless reading opportunities. Young learners can read about all of the holidays or just about the ones they celebrate. There are opportunities for older siblings to read to younger and this creates a quieter and focused time if adults have to be involved in other activities. Keeping the children busy doesn't always have to involve the TV, DVD or DVR.

Writing is another academic opportunity that presents well this time of year. Some send cards. Children can send a card to relatives or friends. Even if they are not celebrating a holiday, it is a great time to write to those who don't live close. Our world has shifted enough that most everyone has family that lives some distance away. Journaling is another fun opportunity for writing. Have the children record the fun with scrapbooks, photo books with captions or straight journals. ~ Thank you notes are a way of practicing letter writing and keeping the writing skills fresh ~ not to mention, a life skill that is polite, kind and a great value to impart.

Have the children create a budget for vacation. Mathematics is everywhere especially when planning for outings that have a cost attached. ~ If you find yourselves eating out, let the children figure out the tip. When on the road, play word and number games with license plates ~ look for letters to form words ~ build the alphabet from letters only found on license plates ~ so many wonderful games that challenge all level learners. It passes the time and you'll be surprised by how these little academic times build skills and warm memories.

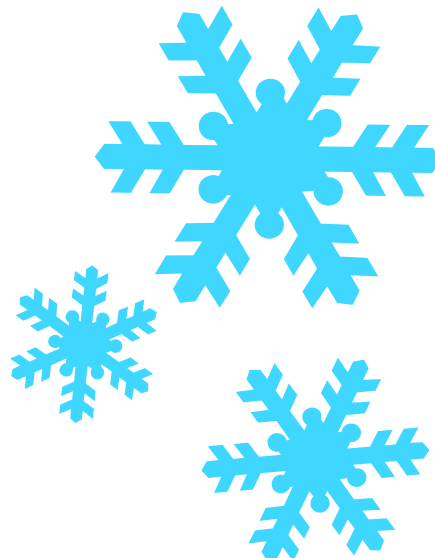

Most of all, find time to relax and enjoy the company of family, friends and make the darkest time of the year light with bright smiles and lots of laughter. Be safe and well.

Enjoy all the holiday season has to offer ~ the rest and vacation too!

All best,

Jim Lee

This and That from the Principal's Office:

Traffic Tip ~ Please do not park in the fire lane even after school hours. There is a small amount of room for cars to back out of the spaces in front of the school. When people park in the firelane, it is an accident in the making. ~ Also, it is against local and state laws !

School Meeting Assemblies will be every Monday unless there is a holiday or school cancelation. Assemblies run from 9:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. All are welcome!

Lost and Found:

Please check the lost and found before you leave for the winter break. We have many items and it would be great if the children could have them at home for the vacations. Thank you!

WAYLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS GIFT-GIVING GUIDELINES

Gifts Given TO THE TEACHER:

- Public school teachers, as municipal employees, may not accept gifts valued at $50 or more. Nor can staff members accept (from one family) a number of smaller gifts which together are worth $50 or more.
- A teacher accepting a gift of less than $50 from a current student may be required to disclose that gift if it creates the appearance of a conflict of interest.
- A teacher may accept a group gift of up to $150 per year from his or her class as long as the gift is identified as being from the entire class, and the identity of the contributors and the amounts given are not identified to the teacher. In addition, no individual family may make a contribution of $50 or more to a group gift.
- Gifts to individual teachers may be given in the form of gift cards as long as they are in accordance with these limitations.

Gifts Given TO THE CLASSROOM OR SCHOOL:

- Gifts of $200 or more to individual classrooms, schools, or the district (as opposed to the teacher) require School Committee approval and acceptance. Gifts of less than $200 may be approved and accepted by a principal or the superintendent.
- Classroom gifts in the form of cash must be deposited and processed through a town account, although reimbursements may be made after an authorized gift purchase.
- Under no conditions can gift cards be given as a classroom gift since they cannot be deposited in a town account.

Gifts In General:

- The School Committee policy recommends: "In lieu of gifts to individual teachers, parents are encouraged to make contributions to school support organizations such as the PTO, CAPA, Boosters, and the Wayland Public Schools Foundation."
- Finally, many teachers truly experience "Thank You" notes as one of the best gifts they can receive.

Curriculum Corner

December in the Library

FROM THE HAPPY HOLLOW LIBRARY

This month, library classes have been delving into the world of electronic books! Ebooks can be read online by anyone with access to the internet - a computer, laptop, iPad, or tablet, even your iPhone! We've also purchased three Nooks which students can read in the library or checkout to their classrooms for the day. These resources are not a replacement for books in print, but are different ways for students to access literature and informational texts.

To read a book from home :

1. Log on to the HH webpage [ <http://whh.wayland.k12.ma.us> ]
2. Under Students, choose Library Media Center, then choose Follett Ebooks
3. The login name is hh and the password is 1234
4. Once you have read the book, logout under "Guest" (top right hand corner)

Ebooks are a great way to fill in a few minutes when on the go. Give them a try!

Technology News

December 2012:

1st Grade:

First graders are very busy in technology class learning to use Kid Pix 3D. The children are creating a "December" holiday card. Each week we focus on a tool and students add that piece to their card. To read more details about this project, please visit the 1st Grade Computer Class Activities website.

2nd and 3rd Grades: Students have been using the program Kid Pix 3D to create an avatar. An avatar is a character the children will use to represent themselves in the on-line world. Students were asked to draw their self-portraits for their avatar. We used several new tools to help us with our self-portraits. The grab tool - a great shortcut to copy and paste an eye. And the eye dropper tool, a shortcut to help find the perfect color. Later in the year, students will use their avatar as we create projects online.

Technology Grades 4 and 5

In Grade 4 students are learning the many features of their Google Documents account with the Wayland Public Schools. We are using the browser Google Chrome for these lessons. Students wrote a simple acrostic poem to use as a practice page while learning how to use Google Documents. Creating documents, formatting, saving, sharing and printing are all topics covered in class.

Grade 5 students have been working on illustrations for their Imaginary Friend project. In their Language Arts class they wrote stories about imaginary friends. In Technology class they have been using the new Kid Pix program to draw slides for the scenes in their story. When the slides are finished they export the slides in to a JPEG format so that we will be able to use them in the next part of the project

MUSIC NOTES:

Susan Calkins—Newsletter Blurb—December 2013
December Greetings!

Grade 2

Second graders will learn a melody from a piece that was composed by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. They will practice and perform a beautiful arrangement of the melody, combining voices and mallet percussion instruments. We'll learn about the life of the composer and read a story called "Young Mozart." Other music class activities will include rhythm games, moving and responding to music, and singing seasonal songs.

I am always delighted to be working with Wayland's creative and talented young students. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

Green Team Announcements and Tips

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Green Team continues to make strides at each school: Claypit composts food waste (non-meat and dairy) in all grades, recycles paper, plastic and metal, and has a vibrant vegetable garden. Happy Hollow continuously scores high in deep recycling and has a fully-occupied six bed garden. The Middle School composts food waste in all three grades, up from one grade last year. The high school recycles plastics and glass both indoors and outside.

Our student involvement is increasing at each school and the compost material is used to nurture our vegetable gardens. We are working with the Board of Health so that we can begin to offer our organic vegetables to our students!

We welcome the community to come to our regularly scheduled meetings, on the second Monday of each month, from 4-5:30 at the HH library. Next meeting is on December 10th. Children welcome. If you'd like to find out more, volunteer, or join the Green Team, check out our website and contact us at www.waylandgreenteam.org.

ENERGY SAVING TIPS FOR WINTER

1- Lower your thermostat to 68° by day and 60°-62° by night. If no one is home during school, lower the temp to 64°. Use programmable thermostats.

2- Adjust your water heater temperature to 120° degrees and save on water heating costs. And if you go away for more than a weekend, turn it down to "vacation" setting.

3- Test for air leaks next to windows, doors, electrical boxes, plumbing fixtures, electrical outlets, ceiling fixtures, attic hatches and other locations where there is a possible air path to the outside. These areas may need caulking, sealing or weather stripping.

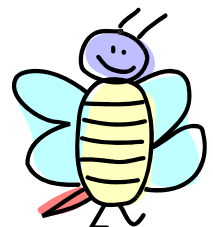

Thank you. -Wayland Schools Green Team

.....SAVE THE DATE!!

The 2013 annual Wayland Public Schools Foundation Spelling Bee will be Sunday, March 24th !!

Details will be available late January. The bee is for grades 2 though 5.

HEALTHY HOLLER

News From the Health Room December 2012

STREP THROAT:

Important information:

- Children that have been diagnosed with strep throat may present with very few symptoms and do not always have a fever.
- The first complaints by your children may be a headache and/or a stomach ache. Children do not necessarily complain about sore throats.
- If your child has these symptoms and they do not go away, then you should take them to their doctor for a throat culture. Some rapid strep tests done in the doctor's office have been negative, with the throat cultures being positive 48 hours later.
- Children diagnosed with "strep" throat need to be on an antibiotic for 24 hours before returning to school, so they are not contagious to others.
- If medication is required during school time, please ask your pharmacy for a "school bottle" labeled from the pharmacy with medication name, dose, and frequency. We will also need a parent permission form/note.

FLU

- It is not too late to get your FLU shot. Flu activity is starting to pick up across the country. Flu mist is available thru your school nurse. Please call me if interested at 508-358-6051.
- With the flu season upon us, more children may be sent home that come to school with colds/coughs. Your child's health is an important concern. It is critical that children get the rest that they need to recover from both bacterial and/or viral infections.

OTHER INFO:

- Please dress your child appropriately with the winter months upon us (coat/mittens/boots/snow pants, change of clothes)
- Children should have a daily snack/drink provided from home
- Please check your cell phone throughout the day as parents will be called if your child needs to be sent home.
- The most important first line of defense against germs is good hand washing. Please continue to reinforce this at home. We will continue to educate children here at school.

All School Head Lice Screening

- Our next check will be after December school vacation, on Thursday, January 3, 2013 at 8:45am.
- Please contact Elizabeth Curtin at escurtin@comcast.net if you can help. No experience is necessary as training is available.

4th grade

Thank you to the parents that have sent in their child's physical.

Please feel free to contact the health room with any concerns at 508-358-6051.
Happy Holidays and stay healthy!
